

Start 2021 with a boost and lift your writing to a new level.

Spend a weekend online with other writers, under the guidance of two experienced writing tutors – both multi-published award-winning authors.

January 29th to 31th – Your At Home Writing Retreat.

Stay home and learn as Alison May and Janet Gover lead a Friday to Sunday online writing retreat.

The Retreat kicks off on Friday evening with a Zoom session to meet your tutors and the other writers. We'll be talking about all things writerly.

On Saturday and Sunday, at your own pace, watch our videos and download our handouts covering topics such as story arc, character development and revisions. We tailor our courses to suit your needs, so if there is a specific topic you'd like us to talk about, just let us know when you book.

Join in the forums to ask questions and share experiences with other writers and our tutors. Submit a sample of your work, and get expert feedback in a one to one session with one of the tutors.

On Saturday evening bring a glass of wine to our Zoom Writers' Room and ask those questions you've never been able to ask before. A final group Zoom session on Sunday will help you set your new writing goals and end our weekend together feeling refreshed and inspired.
